Dr. Gretchen Sullivan Sorin

Dr. Gretchen Sullivan Sorin is Director and Distinguished Professor at the Cooperstown Graduate Program (CGP) in museum studies at SUNY Oneonta. She holds a B.A. from Rutgers, M.A. from CGP and a Ph.D. from the University at Albany. Dr. Sorin has more than thirty-years’ experience working for more than 250 museums in the areas of exhibition development, education, programming, and as a planning consultant and guest curator. She writes and lectures on museum practice, inclusion, and African American history.

Areas of Expertise:

• Resume Writing/Review
• Programming
• Making the most of Internships/Fellowships
• Career Planning